A Correctional Healthcare Professional has the opportunity to make a significant impact on an individual and the community. The expertise and attitude of Correctional Healthcare Professionals can make the difference it takes to promote quality health care standards.

Prisons operated by the North Carolina Department of Public Safety have a varied population of more than 37,000 inmates: male, female, youth and elderly with medical and mental health needs. Healthcare Professionals work in more than 50 facilities statewide with varied medical missions.

Healthcare Professionals provide a wide array of services to the inmate population. These services include:

- preventive care
- long term care
- prenatal care
- outpatient & inpatient
- chronic disease treatment
- mental health treatment
- dialysis services

Goals

- To uphold the mission and goals of the North Carolina Department of Public Safety
- To view correctional facilities as public health stations that significantly impact the health status of the larger community
- To manage care so as to improve the health status of inmates of North Carolina assuring the citizens that the best value is obtained for the tax dollars spent
- To provide care consistent with community standards
- To focus on the internal and external customers served by the North Carolina Department of Public Safety

Our Vision

is to be regarded as the premier correctional healthcare program in the United States.
