

Legislative Wrap Up

2019 Long Session

Roy Cooper, Governor

Erik A. Hooks, Secretary

The 2019 Legislative Session, which began on January 9, 2019, finally came to an end 310 days later on November 15, 2019. Lawmakers remained in session for an unusually long period as a result of a deadlock on the state budget, disagreement over Medicaid expansion and transformation, and the redrawing of legislative and congressional district maps, among other issues. This session, 1,733 bills were introduced; however, only 287 bills were presented to the Governor for his signature.

Below are highlights from this session.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Legislative Affairs Director Susanna Davis at 919-825-2717 or Susanna.Davis@ncdps.gov.

Budget Highlights

Although the House voted to override Governor Cooper's veto of House Bill 966, 2019 Appropriations Act, the Senate did not hold a similar vote this session. The General Assembly will reconvene, however, on Tuesday, January 14, 2020, and many speculate that the Senate will attempt to override the Governor's veto at that time. Despite the impasse, a number of mini-budget bills passed this session to address various agencies' needs. Those mini-budgets impacting DPS are listed below:

Session Law 2019-242 (House Bill 111), 2019-2021 Base Budgets/Certain Agencies

- Enacts a base budget for certain State agencies, departments, and institutions for the 2019-2021 fiscal biennium.
- States the appropriations and funding provisions set out in the bill "shall remain in effect until House Bill 966, 2019 Regular Session, becomes law, at which time that act shall become effective and shall govern appropriations and expenditures."
